Gamification designed to motivate your sales
team to goal

Why SalesScreen

SalesScreen is the only sales gamification platform that taps into the individual motivating drivers across your sales team to boost performance and achieve key business objectives. A tool for managers and sellers in any industry, SalesScreen gives real-time access to KPIs, a variety of sales competitions, an interactive social feed, a customizable rewards shop, achievements, badges, and more.

Instill accountability with visualized real-time data that gives sellers autonomy. Integrate your CRM and pull data into easy-to-read dashboards.

Boost productivity of middle and bottom performers with competitions and badges designed to engage and motivate.

Recognize hard work with rewards your team actually wants in our customizable reward shop. Further increase morale with endorsements given by managers and teammates which recognize daily efforts.

Broadcast the wins of everyone on your team across a real-time feed and through SalesSurround; our multiscreen motivational megaphone for TV, desktop, and mobile.

Reinforce good behavior with clear and consistent coaching. An all-in-one dashboard lets managers easily create tasks, keep notes, and keep track of performance benchmarks.

SalesScreen is a must have...it becomes my sales manager who I can count on to check in with my salespeople and keep them motivated to make just one more call...since implementing SalesScreen.. we were able to find year-over-year growth in new revenue of 45%

ROB ERFURT, DIRECTOR OF SALES STRATEGY, ACRISURE

SalesScreen has been essential in bringing our teams together and making it easy for us to view our sales data. It's easy to use, keeps us updated, and it makes our day more fun. Plus, the sales reps love it.

JAN PATRICK OLSEN, SALES LEADER, PRIVATE INSURANCE, WATERCIRCLES

We love SalesScreen and it has become a part of our culture. It allows us to easily track our agents activities and celebrate those that are doing the right things to grow their business. We also use it to hold our 350 agents accountable and zero in on the activities they need help with.
