

DUAL are excited to be exhibiting at the BIBA Conference 2024

DUAL are excited to be returning to the BIBA Conference again this year. If you'd like to stop by and pay us a visit, you can find the team on stand D40.

In attendance at our stand, we have colleagues from the below teams who will be on hand to discuss the relevant products.

- DUAL Oliva – commercial, construction and specialist
- DUAL Corporate Property
- DUAL Financial Lines – D&O
- KGM – motor insurance
- Magenta – property insurance

They will also be available to answer questions and connect with brokers on the products offered across the wider business.

Simon McGinn, CEO, DUAL UK said: “This year is particularly exciting for me to be attending BIBA as it’s the first time I’ll be attending in my new role as CEO, DUAL UK. As the largest broking event in the country, this is a highlight of the year for me and many of our teams. I am looking forward to catching up with our brokers. BIBA always host such a great event and I don’t doubt this year will be any different.”

Nicholas Holland, Development Director, DUAL Oliva added: “BIBA is always a major event for DUAL Oliva as our business is built on relationships, and this year our presence is going to be bigger than ever. Our goal is always to offer better service and better products to our brokers and their clients, and we strive to always stay one step ahead of the competition when responding to their needs. Come and speak to us on stand D40 to find out about all of our developments over the last 12 months.”

Iain Thomas, Head of Business Development at KGM added: “The KGM team led by our new Managing Director, Ciaran Astin will be out in force again at BIBA looking to do what we do best, talking to new and old broker friends about all things insurance and having some fun along the way. We are really looking forward to seeing you there.”
